An Open Letter to Gangs

Dear Gang Member,

GOD wants you to know one thing ... HE is always there and will always will be. He will be there to protect you and HE will be there to love you. GOD sent HIS Son JESUS CHRIST to pay the price for your SIN's and all the Laws that you have broken.

GOD wants you to know that HE can forgive every bad thing that you have ever done. He wants you to know that HE can do this today !

GOD wants you to know that HE can make some changes in your life. HE can make your dreams come true and HE can help you get off of drugs and alcohol.

GOD can even show you how to get the respect that you been looking for all theses years and show you how to show respect to all your friends and family members.

GOD did not allow you be hurt or abandoned when you were young. This was the work of Satan. He does not want the best for you - he only wants the worst from you. He does not want you to read the next few sentences because he knows he will loose you to JESUS CHRIST.

READ THIS OUT LOUD :

DEAR GOD - I need you in my life today !

I have done a lot of bad things and I repent and turn away from those today. I need you JESUS to come into my Heart and change me. I need you to change my way of thinking and I need you to show me how to leave the gang I am now involved with.

I need to feel you in my Heart right now.

In JESUS Name ... I Pray.
